THE MERCHANTS' INFLUENCE.

With the local political situation fast assuming proportions and the coming into existence of numerous candidates for the various county offices, the voters already are discussing the merits and demerits of the prospective office holders. Tonopah has always been fortunate in having any number of candidates for office and no political offering has ever been forced to go begging for want of an ideal occupant.

An important factor in the coming local campaign will be the stand taken by the merchants and business men in their support of those who are deserving. The candidate looks for the support of the people just prior to the election but after elected he generally conceives the idea that the people must look to him. The idea may be correct for a brief period of time, but when election rolls around again, the condition rapidly reverses itself.

The merchants of Tonopah will beyond a question of doubt, support the man who believes in the advancement of Tonopah; who spends his money in this city; who is conversant with the fact that he must assist the business man and by assisting the merchant also assists himself.

There are candidates for office who have long practiced the habit of sending out of town for the goods, of liberally patronizing the mail order houses to the detriment of the local store keeper. Perhaps the wife of the candidate is known as a "mail order fiend" and spends her spare time perusing the contents of a huge catalog and every time she secures a bit of small change hurries to the postoffice and purchases a postal order made payable to a New York concern. She purchases articles of wearing apparel at a rate far below that of the local merchant, and on receiving the goods sadly discovers that the garments are shoddy and unlike the pictures as appeared in the catalog.

It is a candidate of this sort that will discover the power of the business men when election time rolls around. The merchant must sell his goods to maintain his place of business and it is the duty, not only of the candidate, but of every resident of Tonopah, to patronize the home people. With a greater volume of business there will come a greater reduction in prices.

Tonopah today is the greatest camp in the state of Nevada. The merchants of this city are transacting more business than the merchants of the other cities of the state with not a single exception. Therefore by uniting in placing a ban on the mail order business, the local houses will expand and with the increased profits will come a reduction in prices that will be to the advantage of the purchaser.

THE ROOSEVELT THEORY.

Now that it appears a deadlock will result in the republican national convention at Chicago the dark horses are being carefully groomed and at the opportune moment will be led from their stalls and exhibited to the curious gaze of the delegates. The doughty colonel with all his experience in trapping the wild beast in its lair is having considerable trouble in trapping the unsophisticated delegate, and his assertions that he "will be the next president" appears to have been based merely upon opinion and not upon facts. However, the great sick lion tamer never did pay much attention to facts and he must not realize his great mistake.

Taft is slowly gaining delegates as the committee on contests proceed with the work and it is a notable fact that in the majority of the contest hearings the question has been decided by the unanimous vote of the committeemen. The Roosevelt committeemen, by their voting, have shown that they fully understood the justice of the claims of the Taft delegates, notwithstanding the oft repeated assertions of the ex-president that "soap box" primary methods were resorted to in the securing of the elections.

The republicans of Nevada, almost unanimously, declared in favor of President Taft, his administration and his policies, and by so doing have taken a stand directly in opposition to the Roosevelt theory as to how a government should be conducted. Nevada believes in facts, not theories, and should a deadlock occur in the convention it is doubtful if the delegates from the sagebrush state would cast their six votes for Roosevelt.

The citizens of Nevada paid a splendid tribute to the memory of the late United States Senator George S. Nixon, when fully 15,000 people journeyed to Reno to pay their last respects to the distinguished statesman. Tribute was paid where tribute was due and the memory of Senator Nixon will long live in the hearts of the people of this state.

"Swat That Fly" contests are proving quite an attraction in various parts of this state.

AD WOLGAST IS IN TRAINING FOR HIS COMING BOUT

CHAMPION IS PREPARING FOR TILT WITH JOE RIVERS ON JULY 4TH

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—With Ad Wolgast already on the ground, Joe Rivers is losing no time in preparation for his tilt with the champion on July 4th.

Rivers traveled through his paces at the beaches Sunday, thousands looking over the little Mexican's work. He appeared much heavier and sturdier than upon any of his ring appearances here.

At Doyle's Wolgast was compelled to turn away visitors. His work was 100 per cent better than upon his last workout here. After several fast rounds he declared himself to be in excellent condition.

HAVE LITTLE RESPECT FOR PURE ENGLISH

Colonel Mooney of Memphis, Tenn., comments on the language used by President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt in their bickerings:

"My hat is in the ring."
"He hit me below the belt."
"We slugged 'em through the ropes."

These are just samples of political oratory and if as Colonel Mooney believes the style is to come into governmental vogue we may look forward to much livelier presidential messages and state documents in general.

For instance, congress might get a message like this:

"What ho, blokes! We must get busy on these Cuban ginks and belt 'em a few on the cooca. They are getting too fresh anyway, and it might be as well for us to put the boots to them now as in the sweet bye and bye. Let us all get on the job together and whale the bunch until they squeal like bearscats. Again I say, What ho, blokes!"

FLUFFY ARTICLES ON SALE AT COST

Fluffy, ruffy lace things of all descriptions and names have been placed on sale at greatly reduced prices at the Shop of Sweldom by Cecil Munn for the annual midsummer sale which is now under way. Lingerie of every description is being sold at cost and bargains are offered that will prove a delight to the women of Tonopah.

The Shop of Sweldom was recently moved from its Main street location to the corner of Brougher avenue and Central street in the Tonopah block. The new location was chosen on account of the lack of room in the former business place. The new quarters have been handsomely fitted up and the garments on sale are displayed to a better advantage.

STRIKE BREAKERS FOR SILVER PEAK

A carload of strikebreakers, 54 in all, recruited by C. H. Raimor of Goldfield to take the places of the striking miners on the Silver Peak properties at Blair passed through Goldfield from Los Angeles last night and reported for work this morning.

The strikebreakers were recruited by Raimor in and about Los Angeles upon orders from the Silver Peak company and it is stated that a number of them have worked in the vicinity of the Silver Peak properties before. On the train from Goldfield to Blair was Charles Kiehlauer who was deputized a few days ago by Sheriff Ingalls regarding the Blair situation.

According to Sheriff Ingalls the striking miners are all moving out of Blair and the hill was practically deserted yesterday. A number of the miners have come to Goldfield to take positions here while many more have gone to California.

According to authentic information no more strikebreakers will be brought in, as the men secured in Los Angeles are mines for the most part and are insufficient numbers to successfully work the Silver Peak properties.—Tribune.

Irving Macdonald, formerly head of the firm of Macdonald & Moran, has opened offices at No. 205 State Bank Building and is prepared to do surveying and patenting of mining claims, mapping and blue printing. Promoting and handling mining properties.

Mr. Macdonald is also connected with several large firms dealing in California lands. Call and get literature and information from him. 5-14-12
